The ESI Funds may be used by the Member State to support actions for the reduction of the administrative burden on beneficiaries, including electronic data exchange systems, and actions to reinforce the capacity of Member State authorities and beneficiaries to administer and use those Funds. The ESI Funds may also be used to support actions to reinforce the capacity of relevant partners in line with point (e) of Article 5(3) and to support exchange of good practices between such partners. The actions referred to in this paragraph may concern previous and subsequent programming periods. Risk factors in MATAS implementation:

Prevention mechanisms:

- a) Providing training sessions and support for potential beneficiaries regarding the proper use of newly available funds, Programme's project application and implementation requirements;
- b) Planning training activities and implementing monitoring activities for management structures;
- c) A verification and control procedure of the structures entrusted with delegated activities (random evaluation, on the spot evaluations);

If the TA beneficiary does not update the sections in due time, the MA shall notify the TA beneficiary, in advance, requesting for a written report explaining the reasons for noncompliance with the schedule, this report being taken into account upon the MA's decision.

When approaching the end of the implementation period of the Programme, based on the actual financial progress of the TA contracts, and in correlation with the TA beneficiaries needs, after consultation with the TA beneficiary, the approved distribution of TA beneficiaries' allocation may be subject to reallocation, based on MC decision.

If the TA beneficiary will not submit a reimbursement claim within 6 months of receipt of the advance provided by the MA based on the TA contract, it will have to re-transfer the full amount of the advance.

Where certain expenditure of a reporting period has not been validated and was not included in the reimbursement claim, such expenditure may only be requested in the next request for verification of expenditure and implicitly in the related reimbursement claim. MA has the right to waive this rule, in order to reduce possible decommitment at Programme's level when problems have been identified within the project, during the course of control, or in other duly justified cases.

Subject to availability of funds, the MA will authorize and pay of amounts of the reimbursement request, within 90 days from the date of the submission of the reimbursement claim to the MA, according to Art. 132 par.
